The Senior Citizens League (TSCL) is a senior citizen membership organization that educates senior citizens about their rights, freedoms, and benefits. Services include: distribution of public awareness and educational materials; dissemination of information concerning legislation before Congress; enlistment of senior citizens in grassroots lobbying campaigns on issues affecting retirees; ensuring that governmental bodies live up to commitments made to senior citizens.

Call for information about membership. Some benefits are eligibility for prescription drug discount card, subscription to The Social Security and Medicare Advisor newsletter, participation in efforts to protect Social Security and Medicare benefits and more.
