Shepherd's Center of Chesterfield offers volunteer opportunities. Volunteer opportunities are available for office staff, drivers for medical appointments and grocery shopping, Handyhands-folks that provide light maintenance services, teachers in the Adventures in Learning program, chefs, Board Members, and committee members.

Individual visits are offered on a routine basis. The visit may be by phone or in person. The services help provide regular contact with individuals who are isolated, and not getting out.

Service Area(s)

Chesterfield County
