Friendship, North Campus, offers skilled nursing and support care in a 373-bed Health and Rehab Center. The Center is the centerpiece of Friendship's nursing care services. Here, you'll find comprehensive health care services that include skilled and intermediate nursing care, subacute care, inpatient rehabilitation, Alzheimer's care, and palliative care. In addition to around-the-clock skilled nursing and personal care, residents enjoy stimulating social, recreational activities, dining services and comfortable accommodations.

Rate includes meals, housekeeping, supervised medication, attention to personal needs, supervised activities and nursing staff on the floor. Rates range according to the room and extra services.
