St. Mary's Woods community, sponsored by the Richmond Catholic Diocese, offers four levels of assisted living care without having to move from your apartment. Monthly rental fees include scheduled transportation, emergency pull cords, meal options, and nursing staff available 24 hours per day for emergencies. A licensed nurse is available 24 hours a day.

The capacity is 130.

Assisted living services include medication administration, assistance with bathing and dressing, weekly housekeeping and laundering of bed and bath linens, and an active social, recreational, and religious activity program. Additional charges for beauty and barber services, physical therapy, and guest meals.

On-site rehabilitation therapy center staffed with physical, speech, and occupational therapists. If skilled rehabilitation care, nursing care, or dementia care is needed, residents are given priority admission to Our Lady of Hope's facilities. The capacity is 130 residents.
