JABA's Betty Queen Community Senior Center in Louisa County provides access for older adults (60+) and their families to a wide array of community services essential for maintaining health, independence, and wellbeing. Programs are offered in four core areas: Health and Nutrition, Education and Recreation, Physical Fitness, and Volunteerism. Programs include lectures, live arts, exercise classes, interest groups, nutritious lunches, health education and screenings, entertaining activities, and community based events. Through a case manager, the center also provides home based nutrition services.
