Under the auspices of the Older Americans Act, Title III, nutritious meals are provided to individuals age 60 and over in three of our Senior Centers. Other services included are nutrition screening, assessment and education and counseling as appropriate, along with participation in daily fitness, recreational and social activities, and programs promoting health and wellness. There are also opportunities to participate through volunteerism.

For information regarding the Arlington's 55+ and Arlington's Senior programs, please call 703-228-47447, option 3.
