The Masonic Home of Virginia (the Home) offers independent living as part of the Life Plan Community (continuing care retirement community). The purpose of The Home is to provide the highest quality of care to individuals requiring long-term care services. Virginia Masons age 65 and older are welcome, as well as wives, widows, and other qualified individuals age 62 and older.

The Home offers forty-five units of apartments, with a carport or garage. The “big house” offers nine Masonic senior housing apartments, including four newly renovated units.

Services offered may include transportation to social, recreational, and medical appointments; meals or dining room on site; hairstylist/barber on-site; and support groups.
