Congregate Meal Lunch Programs at Senior Housing Sites and Senior Centers. This program offered by the Loudoun County Area Agency on Aging (AAA) provides weekday lunches to housing site residents 55 and above, or those who are disabled and cannot prepare their own meals for medical and/or physical reasons, and have no other assistance available.

CAFES are located at Madison House, Wingler House, and William Watters House residences and are served at Senior Centers.

Call the office at 703-777-0257 for more information.
