Still Meadows Enrichment Center and Camp runs on help from volunteers, folks who have created and continue to help function and expand the services on the camp. Volunteers have put in over 10,000 hours since 2003. Opportunities for volunteers include:

- People with administrative and computer skills
- Lawn and facilities maintenance workers
- Camp week volunteers (event if it is only for one day)
- Buddies to walk and talk with our campers

- Musicians
- Individuals who know sign language
- Therapeutic riding volunteers who are comfortable with horses
