The Heritage Law Group offers life care planning, in addition to elder law. Life Care Planning is a holistic approach to meeting the care needs of seniors. Life care planning focuses on promoting and maintaining the senior's quality of life, safety and well being; using the senior's money for the senior's benefit; identifying public sources available; preserving family resources.

Other locations in Yorktown, Williamsburg and Poquoson.

Other areas of practice include estate planning and disability planning. A substantial part of the practice is devoted to Medicaid and guardianship/conservatorship. Works with geriatric care coordinators, attorneys, accountants and Community Services Board.

Services: Planning for disability; contested medical care decision-making; contested and uncontested guardianship; estate planning; long term care issues; elder abuse/fraud recovery; civil commitment; Medicaid planning and qualification; probate of wills, special needs planning, etc.
