Senior Program is located at the Hampton Roads Community Action Program's Clark Multi-Purpose Center. Hot and nutritious lunches are served five days per week, sponsored by PAA (Peninsula Agency on Aging) and by Community Food and Nutrition.

The senior program has been an active part of OHA since 1967 and housed at the Clark Center since 1981. The service area includes the Cities of Newport News and Hampton. All programs and activities are offered to adults ages 60 and over; special programs are offered to other adults who are under 50.

The center provides an atmosphere to encourage senior participation in recreational, educational, nutritional, cultural programs, exercise and activities. Tours and shopping trips are scheduled. Television, books, games, crafts, and music are available in the senior lounge. Transportation is provided to many of the seniors.

The Senior Program is located at the Office of Human Affairs' Clark Multi-Purpose Center.
