Carriage House at The Villa at Suffield Meadows provides a safe, secure environment and 24-hour support for individuals with Alzheimer's disease or other dementia disorders. The Carriage house has 12 private suites to provide the necessary assurance of a home-like setting. A separate secure garden with planting beds lets residents enjoy the outdoors.

All staff receive cognitive impairment training and additional education about Alzheimer's and how to help someone with cognitive impairments. The Villa is affiliated with the Fauquier Health System.

Service Area(s)

Fauquier County
