Home Instead Senior Care offers Alzheimer's and dementia care. The CAREGivers of Home Instead Senior Care are ready to provide the special senior care needed at home or in the assisted living facility for individuals with dementia or Alzheimer's disease. Non-medical Alzheimer's care is available. Caregivers can provide assistance with enhancing and restoring the simple pleasures of life, like a walk in the park, ride in the car or spending time in the garden.

Caregivers who work with dementia are trained to maintain a safe environment, provide nutritious meals, provide mind-stimulating activities, create social interaction and supervise day activities.

Alzheimer's respite care is also available. Location also in Chesapeake, Virginia.
