Touch of Grace provides personal care services in your home. Caregivers who are screened, trained, insured and bonded are available to provide non-medical care for our loved one, whether an adult diagnosed with Alzheimer's or a child that has special needs. Schedule can meet your family needs: from a minimum of 4 hours to multiple hours per day.

Services can include assistance with activities of daily living, including assistance with bathing, showering, feeding, oral hygiene, incontinence care, bathroom assistance, help dressing, etc.

Meal preparation and special diets can be part of service, as well as monitoring food supplies, disposing of old or spoiled food, shopping, etc.

Office has accessible entrance.
