Family Lifeline offers Personal Care.

Personal Care provides trained and certified care providers who provide in-home care to assist with activities of daily living. Generally, clients need assistance with meal preparation, bathing, dressing, and toileting. Care Providers also help with light housekeeping, grocery shopping, and laundry as well as accompany individuals to doctor's visits. Clients receive support from our RN and Care Manager. The program is licensed by the State.

Companion and Homemaker Care can provide 1 to 3 days per week of assistance with meal preparation, light housekeeping, and companionship. Clients receive support from our RN and Care Manager.

Respite care is also available to relieve caregivers.
