The ReStore of Habitat of Humanity of Washington DC and Northern Virginia is a retail outlet offering building and home improvement supplies for sale to the general public at greatly reduced prices. The new, gently used, and salvaged supplies are donated by individuals, contractors, and suppliers.

Habitat ReStores function much like a thrift store for a wide variety of building materials and is open to the general public. Prices are well below retail and specific pricing depends on age, condition, quality, and quantity of the item. New deals arrive daily on appliances, furniture, fixtures, gardening supplies, kitchenware, lumber, flooring, tile, windows, doors, plumbing parts, vanities, and more. Only what is donated is sold.

Habitat for Humanity operates two ReStores in Northern Virginia, located at:
