Alexandria Department of Community and Human Services, Women's Initiatives, offers a Domestic Violence Support Group for women who have been sexually assaulted as adults. This support group is for eight weeks and explores the impact that sexual assault has had on the life of a survivor and will address topics connected to healing from the assault.

All members must meet with a sexual Assault Center group facilitator before the group begins. Call or ask for a flyer for more information. Call the Sexual Assault Hotline at 703-683-7273 for the date the group will begin, how to register, or more information.
