Homemaker services are an addition to companion care with services to include light housekeeping, medication reminders, organization, meal prep, laundry, respite, and more.

Wise Journey Home Care and Living Assistance is a non-medical home care agency providing companion and homemaker services to seniors, disabled, veterans, and anyone who seeks these services. They have a wellness program to include volunteer programs to prevent isolation in seniors by staying connected, walking groups, meal planning, technology-assisted medication reminders. Add-on services include grocery/essential supply delivery, wellness checks, prescription pick up, and virtual peer support groups for seniors.
